John F. Muldoon, a stalwart young man of years, is likely to be one of the 200 new poemen to be appointed by Police Commission-Bell of Brooklyn, for his name is near a top of the eligible list as furnished the Civil Service Commission, with 90 cent, to his credit. There is very le doubt that Mr. Muldoon will make a good policeman. He has fine a physique, he is honest, and industrious, and that he does not lack courage is proved by the fact that e wears a medal presented to him for saving a an from drowning at the risk of his own life. He is also a Democrat, and is recommended by John Delmar, the South Brooklyn leader. The eing of Mr. Muldoon's name so high on the ligible list incidentally shows that the Rev. Dr. Hall and the other Civil Service Commissioners very wisely do not regard literary acquirements a prime necessity for a policeman. To the mestion as to what he should do when resisted in making an arrest, he wrote the following:

"Rap my stick for my brother officer or call on the first citizen i would meet for help."

Asked to name the four principal hospitals be answered: "Municipal building City Hall, and Fost Office." This is an example of his briting from dictation:

As they wast sleep, more been same All Shouling and

As they past along more beys came All Shouting and Laughing and by and by Some of them began to through seems. At last one Stone went smash through A win-few the man came rushing ought in his shirt sleeves and lawled at them hoo threw that atome.

The Civil Service Commission has recently been a little perplexed over the discovery that of the 352 names on the eligible list of firemen propared by Mayor Whitney's Commission on the eve of the last election each is marked in physique 30, the maximum. Wm. I. Freston. the President of the former Commission, has poon this explanation to young Mr. Shepard, als successor: ent this explanation to successor:
There were 726 applicants for the positions
There were 726 applicants for the positions

"There were 726 applicants for the positions of uniformed firemen, of which number 368 were approved by the experts in physical exmination and 358 failed to pass. Of the number which did pass 332 reached the eligible list, and in making up their merit marks the committee graded each one physique 30, for the reason that the surgeons of the Fire Department had certified that under the rules of said department they were physically qualified to become firemen. The committee deemed it proper to follow the same rule that they had adopted in previous examinations, to mark them all alike, upon the theory that a candidate was either physically qualified or physically unadified: that is, physically sound or physically unsound, and these men being sound were eatitled to the highest rating."

A VIRTUAL MORTGAGE ON PERU.

That is the Latest Story About W. E. Grace & Co, and the English Creditors.

THE SUN on Monday announced the fact of the departure to Peru from this country of Mr. Henry D. Cooke, nephew of Jay Cooke, the Philadelphia banker: Mr. J. C. Landreau, and a Mr. Hooker. These gentlemen are all capitalists, and, it is said, they go to Peru to see what concessions they can obtain from the Peruvian Government looking to the payment of the vast Landreau claims. Theophile Landreau discovered in 1840 great nitrate deposits in Peru, and under the Peruvian laws entitled to about $300,000,000. The firm of W. R. Grace & Co. of this city and the became entitled to about $300,000,000. The firm of W. R. Grace & Co. of this city and the Peruvian bondholders in London also have unsettled claims against Peru, and it was said that W. R. Grace & Co. were interested in the Landreau affair, too, though both the brothers Grace & Co. and the English holders of Peruvian bonds have pooled their interests, and that the Graces have obtained a virtual mortgage upon Peru and her resources. The English bondholders, it was stated had claims against Chili in respect to certain deposits of nitrate which Peru ceded to Chili at the close of the late war. Peru now, according to the London story, assigns to the Grace syndicate the right to work all its mines and guano beds, to construct railroads and operate them, to further commerce in all branches, to receive percentages on all Custom House dues, and to establish banks. The Chillan Government made objections to this agreement when it was proposed a few years ago, but it has since withdrawn them. The agreement has not yet been sanctioned by the Peruvian Congress, but it is believed that it soon will be.

The making of this agreement would, of course, leave the Landreau people out in the cold, fir, Michael P. Grace sails for England on the Servia next Saturday to see the English bondholders.

Mr. W. R. Grace declined to say anything about the matter yesterday.

"There are so many people interested beside ourselves," and Mr. Grace, "that I really ought not to say anything about it."

A CHINESE LAWYER.

Hong Yen Chang Admitted to the Bar of the State of New York.

POUGHKEEPSIE, May 17 .- Among the apicants admitted to the bar of the State of New York to-day was Hong Yen Chang of Brooklyn. He is the only regularly admitted Chinese lawyer in this country. In reply to questions he said he was born in China, is 27 years of age, and has been in this country fifteen years. He studied in the office of Deady & Goodrich, New York city. He says admission was re fused him at the General Term in New York city, though the committee, composed of Eras tus Ransom and William Hornblower, reported that he had passed the required examination. He says that Judge Van Brunt of the General Term denied him admission for reasons which, though he asked for them, were not given, the Judge telling him that the Legislature allowed the Court discretion in the matter. Chang was educated at Yale, and studies law at Columbia College, and was recently naturalized. The Legislature in 1887 passed an act permitting him to again apply for admission. In appearance he has a decidedly Chinese look, but he speaks excellent English. He is of medium height, rather stout, and is a very bright young man. The Examining Committee said he passed a very ceditable examination, and was deserved by awarded a diploma.

William M. Randolph of Brooklyn, a colored man, was also admitted. He is a graduate of the New York University, and a student in the law office of Tremain & Tyler, New York city. He looks more like a Spaniard or a Cuban than an African. His face is of a bright mulatto color, but his hair is kinky. He, too, passed a very creditable examination. As his name and that of Chang's were called to sign their parchments, the other applicants applauded anthusiastically. that he had passed the required examination

They Say Tascott is Found

CHICAGO, May 17 .- There are new developments in the Snell murder case. Tuscott has never been lost. People who have been at a loss to account for the ability of a comparatively inexperienced boy, without means or many friends, to evade the police for three month may be assured that W. H. Tascott had no such ability, and has done nothing of the kind. The least adroit of the three or four who particileast adroit of the three or four who participated in the crime, he was quickly apprehended and promptly sequestered for the good of the cause, it being shouted from the house tops meanwhile that he was the man, and the only man wanted. This was the scheme put into operation by Capt. Bonfield and Mr. Stone for the purpose of relieving the accomplices of anxiety on their own account.

"Young Tascott was no good on earth," said a detective to-day, "and he deserves to be punished on general principles, but he did not fire the shots that killed old man Snell. He had not the nerve to attempt a burglary like that perpetrated in Snell's house the night of the murder. He was a mere boy, and is valuable to the police more for what he knows than for what he did."

"Then you think Tascott is not really the man they are looking for?"

what he did."
Then you think Tascott is not really the man they are looking for?"
"I am sure he is not. In the first place, they know where he is, and have known all along, and in the second place, there is much larger game to be bagged. Tascott is a catspaw."

Judge Lynch in Prison.

COLUMBUS, May 17 .- Judge Lynch came very near making an end of Humphreys, a negro, who was arrested yesterday for an as sault upon a little girl. He was bound over to cault upon a little girl. He was bound over to court, and when taken to jail his identity be-came known to the other prisoners, who at once attacked him. After throwing him into a bathtub and nearly drowning him, the prison-ers secured a rope, placed it around his neck, and dragged him about the corridors, ending the performance by drawing him up from the floor. The man would undoubtedly have been strangled to death before the jail officers ar-gived had not one of the prisoners cut the rope.

SALIDA, Col., May 17 .- The Leadville express on the Denver and Rio Grande road was derailed while rounding a long curve in Brown's Cafion on Tuesday night. The express and baggage cars were dashed to pieces on the rocks in the cafion and the smoking car partially demolished. The day coach and deepers turned over on the track, but were only alightly injured. Express Messenger Wolfensporer was probably fatally injured and twelve painting the care of the care ALBERT'S LOVE LETTERS READ.

They're Very Loving, but his Wife Would Rather Have a Little Alimeny. Young Albert Levy, a Hebrew, fell in love, six or eight years ago, with a flaxen-haired Christian servant in his mother's house. Her name was Kate. The mother discovered letters that had passed between them and sent the girl away. Albert found her, and they agreed to marry when they should have money enough. Then Albert got into trouble, and in 1883 was sent to the Elmira Reformatory, and Kate went home to Germany. When Albert got out she came back, and a date for the wedding was set. The bridegroom did not appear. The next day be wrote to her that he had been kept at home by his mother's Illness. Finally in 1886 they were married. Two months after their marriage he left her, and she went to work to support herself. She now has two children, and she is suing him in Judge Lawrence's court for a separation and maintenance It appeared on the hearing yesterday that in February last Albert, learning where she was, wrote her a letter, in which he said: Love, for my sake, if you care for me, come home at once, so that I can make you happy, and you need work no more.

In another letter he said: In another letter he said:
You are the only one that can make me happy. What I have written to you! did with my heart, and what I have promised you! will do. That I swear, by 160d. Believe me, tove. I will be true. You shall never have reason to rue. You have now got a faithful busband, will you come back to me! I know that if we live together forever we will live happy. I will leave my mother, so that I can live with you and make you happy. My mother can keep her money. Money brings me to luck. I will work day and night and give you a nice home, where we can live like two anges. If you remain true to me you can kiss me to death, and do with me what you please.

Kate returned, but her husband had no home for her and no money. A short time after he asked her to consent to a divorce, promising to give her a certain sum of money, but she absolutely refused such a proposition. Kate then brought this suit, as her mother-in-law was determined she should not live with Albert. Her motion for alimony was granted yesterday by default.

THE PARK POLICE PARADE Gray-coated Guardians of the Peace March. ing in Central Park,

The Park Police to the number of 175 marched up and down for an hour yesterday forenoon on the Mall in Central Park. It was their annual parade. The Park Commissioners were prepared to postpope the review on account of inclement weather, but the day was clear and comfortably warm, an agreeable surprise to those particularly interested in the exercises. The trees and grass in the Park have been refreshed and brightened by the rains o the past week, so that the lawns and walks are cool and reafful with the vivid green of spring.

In spite of the early hour, for the drill began at 10 o'clock, a crowd of at least 2,000 persons gathered to see Capt. Beatty lead his army of gray-coated police through the evolutions of the parade. Cappa's band supplied the music.

The drill lasted just an hour.

the parade. Cappa's band supplied the music. The drill lasted just an hour.

Among the speciators were Mayor Hewitt, who made a minute inspection of each man through his double eyeglass; Police Commissioner Voorhis, who told Capt. Beatty that his men had certainly improved since last year's drill; Park Commissioners Robb and Towle, ex-Commissioner Crimmins, Commissioner Coleman, Charles de Forest Burns, Secretary of the Park Commission: Architect Weston of the Museum, Major Haverty, Col. Gilon, Superintendents Parsons and Conklin, William Lalor, Jr., M. K. Jessup, Senator Langbein, Adjt. Hoagland of the Old Guard, and W. L. Andrews of the Metropolitan Museum Trustees.

Two thousand pollemen drilled on the Pologrounds yesterday morning for the coming annual parade. Superintendent Murray rode ahead of the column on a big bay horse, and the four Inspectors headed their battalions, also on horseback. Capt. Allaire was drill master.

HAVING HIS REVENGE WITH FIRE A Discharged Stableman Endangers the Lives of Eighteen Horses. Rubin Lasky, a truckman, who stables his horses in the rear of the dwelling, 66 Norfolk street, went to the stable at 11 o'clock of Wednesday night to feed them. He saw a light in the hay loft above the stalls, in which were the horses of Joseph J. Schwach, a milk dealer of 202 Broome street, and he went over to tell Mr. Schwach, who lives around the corner in 202 Broome street. Then he returned to the stables. The supposed thief, who was a big fellow, ran out, and both men gave chase. The man ran into the arms of Police Captain Cassidy in Essex street. He gave his name as William Wiekman, aged 30, of 10 Georick street. Mr. Schwach said that Wiekman had been employed by him, but had been discharged four weeks ago for drunkenness.

When Schwach and Lasky got back to Norfolk street they found the neighborhood blocked up with fire engines. Firemen were trying to extinguish flames which were pouring out of the second story windows of the stable. The fire patrol had rescued the eighteen horses which were stabled there.

Wiekman was taken to Essex Market Court yesterday morning. He acknowledged that he had set the stable on fire, because Schwach owed him two months' wages and he could not get him to pay. stables. The supposed thief, who was a big Actor Kyrle Bellew has secured a divorce from his wife. The divorce decree was granted by Judge Lawrence of the Supreme Court on Wednesday afternoon upon the filing by Howe & Hummel, attorneys for Mr. Bellew, of the report of the referee. The proceedings were begun in May, 1887, Mr. Bellew's complaint alleged that his wife was living with a wealthy and titled Englishman at the Langham Hotel, London. She is now said to be in Paris. Copartuership Jotices. NOTICE is herowith given that the partnership ex-N is the between William Redebold and John A. Russier was discoved by mutual agreement on the 20th day of January, 1860. MR. BARNES OF PRILADELPHIA.

Anxious to Swindle New York Diamond Dealers, but a Little too Slow. Last Tuesday morning a man introduced himself to J. M. Lyon, importer of diamonds at 16 Maiden lane, as a buyer of diamonds, with recommendations from T. M. Knight, a large dealer in diamonds at 18 South Eighth street, Philadelphia. As Mr. Lyon was occupied, the stranger, after waiting a few minutes, went away with the promise to return shortly. He did not come back, but two hours later a letter. apparently in Mr. Knight's handwriting and bearing his signature, was received. This communication described "Mr. Barnes of Philadelphia" as an old patron of the writer and a good each customer, who had been unable to find what he wished at Mr. Knight's store. The letter closed with a request for 5 per cent commission on the bill of purchased goods.

Mr. Lyon's letter of thanks and acknowledgement, which described the call of Mr. Knight's supposed customer, elicited the following telegraphic response from Mr. Knight:

Den'thou Barnes. Berger.

Don't know Barnes. Beware, And a few minutes later: Have him arrested. Other letters from Krug & Co. Inquiry showed that the same man had ordered $2,000 worth of diamonds from Krug & Co., and tried to get the firm to cash a sight draft on Philadelphia for $3,000. The firm didn't, and "Barnes of Philadelphia" disappeared. Later on Tuesday Mr. Krug received a letter of substantially the same purport and bearing the same signature as the letter to Mr. Lyon.

AN INTERESTING INTERVIEW.

What the Proprietor of One of the Lending Magazines Has to Say on a Subject of Great Importance. One of the brightest and most readable of the magazines is the Cosmopolitan, which has re-cently adopted the new feature of colored illusrations. Mr. Paul J. Schlicht, the founder of the magazine, gives some interesting experi-the magazine, gives some interesting experience. He cays:

"I conceived the idea of colored illustrations while in Europe. At that time I gave some attention to literature and art matters, although to tell the truth. I was so nearly dead from malaria that at times I could scarcely hold up my liend. It seemed to me that I would never be able to do business again or take any real interest in life, and so, to make a long story short. I returned to America. The day I landed in New York, a friend invited me to his home to dinner. He saw my wretched condition, and declared that he had something he was certain would positively cure it. More to please my friend than anything eise. I took some of his remedy, and to my surprise I alept well that night. You can well imagine that I continued to take It the next day, and in brief, within one month from that time I was entirely cured of malaria in its worst form, wholly by the use of Duffy's Pure Mait Whiskey—no quinfne, no drugs. During all this time I was encouraged to continue its use by my wife, who is a firm believer in temperance, as indeed I am myself, and in fact, my wife purchased it by the dozen for me. When I recovered I felt like a new man, and I have nersuaded numbers of my Iriends to try the same means for restoring their health, and the results have invariably been valuable. Mr. Schlicht is a gentleman whose word is above question, and the statement he makes should prove a valuable suggestion to all sufferers from malaria.
